

LONG FORM: A 25-year corporate trailblazer, weaving innovation into business mastery across sectors from High-Tech to Non-profit. With Microsoft for almost 10 years, she's an Azure Segment Go-To-Market Lead, driving State and Local Government and Education transformations. Fearlessly fostering diversity and inclusion, she's also the FY25 Chair for Blacks @ Microsoft, Great Lakes; a director on two nonprofit boards: the Sujeeth Foundation and the Board for her local PBS and NPR affiliate station; and founder of the people project corporation, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.

From Rolls-Royce Aerospace to Delphi Automotive to Microsoft, Stefani's dynamic journey fuels her sought-after speaker presence. A creative tech-geek by trade, but an intuitive communicator and storyteller at heart, she holds a PR-focused BA in Communications from Indiana University. Follow her on LinkedIn for a front-row seat to empowerment.
